MEDICINAL.

When You Think

Of the periodic pain which many women experience with every month it makes the gentleness and kindness always associated with womanhood seem to be almost a miracle. While in general no woman rebels against what she regards as a natural necessity there is no woman who would not gladly be free from this recurring period of pain.

Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well, and gives them freedom from disease. It establishes regularity, dries weakening drains, heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence strictly private and confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. T. Dolan, of Madrid, Perkins Co., Neb., writes: "I was cured of painful periods by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and his Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla. I think Dr. Pierce's medicines the best in the world."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

The sluggish liver made active by the use of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour risings, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol cures indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural juices of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure does not only cure indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy cures all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

LYNCH LAW FEVER.

Delaware is on the eve of another lynching if 300 men armed with shot-guns and pistols who are in three separate parties succeed in catching Fletcher Hollis, a desperate negro of Smyrna aged 22 years, who last night shot and fatally wounded Constable James D. Wright at Clayton, one mile from Smyrna, while resisting arrest.

The bullet struck Wright just below the heart, but by first hitting a button its course was deflected. The doctors believe it went downward and lodged in the pit of his stomach. Drs. Harmonson and Grier, who attended the victim, say they fear an internal hemorrhage, in which event death will speedily ensue.

The town was so excited over the tragedy that the negro managed to escape after holding several pursuers at bay with his smoking pistol. As he is well known his capture is looked for hourly. Constable Jones and Constable Wright, of Clayton, were co-operating in an effort to arrest Hollis on the double charge of shooting at a man in Dover last Saturday night and creating a disturbance at the Friendship colored camp-meeting, four miles from Smyrna, Sunday evening.

Neither constable was armed. When they saw the negro in front of the Hotel Stockle in Clayton at 7 o'clock yesterday evening Wright approached and said to him: "I want you." "No, you don't want me," was the reply. "Oh, yes, I do and I will take you," Wright rejoined.

At this juncture the negro quickly drew a big pistol and, aiming it at Wright's head, shouted: "You won't take me!" Wright, who up to this time had not been assisted by Constable Jones, because of the latter's failure to have a pistol, suddenly seized the negro and wheeled him around. He hoped that by doing so he would have the pistol pointed away from him. Before he could accomplish this Hollis pulled the trigger and the bullet entered Wright's body.

Wright, who is 50 years old, did not fall, but succeeded in walking to the hotel steps, where he collapsed and was carried into the hotel and physicians summoned. Constable Jones started in pursuit of the fleeing murderer after a bystander had gotten a pistol for him.

As soon as he had fired the negro ran down the road toward Smyrna, pointing his smoking weapon backward as he ran and warning the pursuers. He soon entered a nearby cornfield and started across the country.

Heavily manacled and in the custody of Sheriff M. M. Berry, of Hancock county, Georgia, John Dixon, a negro charged with having feloniously assaulted Mrs. McLeon, a prominent white lady of Sparta, arrived in Macon at noon yesterday after barely escaping death at the hands of an infuriated mob.

On Sunday night Mrs. McLeon had occasion to enter the backyard to quiet a vicious dog and was just returning to the house when she was set upon by the negro. She screamed lustily for help, and made heroic efforts to defend herself.

A woman neighbor, hearing the cries for help, rushed to the assistance of the struggling woman, and after fighting the frantic woman for a short time the negro fled. Word was sent immediately to Mr. McLeon, who was attending to some business in Sparta, and he started on a hunt for his wife's assailant. Yesterday morning, with Sheriff Berry, McLeon found Dixon and made desperate efforts to shoot him, but was prevented.

A mob quickly gathered to deal out swift justice to Mrs. McLeon's assailant. It was a race to the depot between Sheriff Berry and the mob, and the Hancock county officer won by a small margin. He had just placed his prisoner on the train when the leaders of the mob appeared at the depot, but before any action could be taken the conductor gave orders for the engineer to go ahead.

George Henshaw, 19 years old, while hunting squirrels on his father's farm near Hartford City, Ind., yesterday, was approached by two prowling negroes. They seized the boy, searched him, tore his clothing from him and mutilated him with a knife. The boy succeeded in reaching his home. He told his story, and his father gave the alarm, mounted a horse and called for volunteers to wreak vengeance on the negroes. Two hundred men and boys joined in the chase. Neighboring farms and towns were warned by telephone and the country was scoured. No trace of the negroes was found. The hunt proceeded until nightfall. Sheriff Morigal, with a detachment of deputies and police, followed the mob to prevent a lynching, if possible.

MRS. HELENA BLAU,

Young Milwaukee Society Woman.

THEN thousands cured women have written to tell how Wine of Cardui bestows the blessing of health on every woman who takes it, rich and poor alike.

Mrs. Helena Blau, No. 123 Seventh Street, Milwaukee, Wis., is one of the young women whom Wine of Cardui has rescued from a life of suffering. She writes:

"Wine of Cardui is certainly 'worth out' women's best friend and I am pleased to give my experience with it. A few months ago I caught a severe cold, having been out in inclement weather, which settled all over me, particularly in the abdomen. I was in almost constant pain. I consulted a physician and took his medicine for a month and without any relief. I then decided I would try your medicine and it was a lucky day for me, when I did so. I noticed a change in a few days and felt encouraged to continue taking Wine of Cardui, and my patience was rewarded, for in two weeks my pains had left me and I felt like a new woman."

Mrs. Helena Blau.

The woman who has suffered from female weakness should do anything within reason to secure health. Wine of Cardui is the medicine that appeals to reasonable women—women who hold operations and cutting in horror—women who know that Nature is the best physician. Wine of Cardui gives women back their health by giving Nature a chance to build up the wasted and diseased tissue. Wine of Cardui regulates the menstrual flow and Nature, when relieved of the drains or of the poisons in the system, makes the functional organs strong and healthy again.

Any woman who is silently suffering untold pains because she is too sensitive to undergo a physician's examination and treatment can find no excuse for not securing relief when Wine of Cardui is offered to her. There is no publicity to deter her. She can take Wine of Cardui in the privacy of her home, with as much assurance of a final cure as though a dozen doctors recommended it. Many physicians do recommend Wine of Cardui to their patients.

Why not get a $1.00 bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.
